Resumed organizational session for 1998
7 and 8 May 1998
Agenda item 7
Elections, nominations, confirmations and appointments

Election of members of the functional commissions of the Council

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In accordance with section V of Economic and Social Council resolution 557 C (XVIII) of 5 August 1954, as amended by the Council's decision of 19 December 1968, the Secretary-General sent a note verbale to Member States informing them of the forthcoming vacancies in the functional commissions to be filled by the Council at its resumed organizational session for 1998 (7 and 8 May 1998).

2. Under the terms of Council resolution 1147 (XLI) of 4 August 1966, in 1998 the members of the Commission on Population and Development, the Commission for Social Development, the Commission on Human Rights, the Commission on the Status of Women, the Commission on Science and Technology for Development and the Commission on Sustainable Development are to be elected on the basis of equitable geographical distribution according to a specified pattern. The Secretary-General, in the annex to his note verbale, indicated the pattern applicable to each of those commissions.

3. With regard to the Commission on Sustainable Development, in accordance with Council resolution 1997/63 and decision 1997/316 the terms of office of the members of the Commission will begin immediately after the conclusion of the work of the Commission's regular session held after 1 January, following their election by the Council (at its resumed organizational session of the previous year). The terms of the members will end at the conclusion of the regular session held after 1 January, following the election of States that are to succeed them as members of the Commission (unless they are re-elected). As a transitional measure, the Council decided to extend the terms of those members of the Commission whose terms of office were to expire on 31 December 1997 until the conclusion of the Commission's sixth session. The sixth session will conclude on 1 May 1998. Immediately thereafter, the terms of the new members will begin.

4. The current membership of the functional commissions is given in the annex below. The number of members to be elected to each commission from each regional group is also indicated.
